

NONPUBLIC PUPIL AID PROGRAM

2020-21 School Year

To be eligible for reimbursement, the educational materials must be secular, neutral, nonideological, and not capable of religious use. The materials must be primarily for an individual pupil to use for educational purposes in a particular class. All homeschool students are required to take a nationally normed achievement test. The cost of this test is eligible for reimbursement through the aid program.

Examples of materials that are eligible for reimbursement include textbooks, workbooks, DVDs, educational games, music books, sheet music/ learning kits, flashcards, and prepared instructional computer software programs. "Textbook" includes a teacher's edition, teacher's guide, or other materials that accompany a textbook that a pupil uses when the teacher's edition, teacher's guide, or other teacher materials are packaged physically or electronically with textbooks for student use.

Examples of materials that are NOT eligible for reimbursement are instructional supplies such as writing paper, notebooks, construction paper, scissors, pens, pencils, crayons and markers.

We do not reimburse for used books as they do not fit the requirement of being available to public students in adequate quantities and the condition and value of the used books is unknown.

- If you intend to request reimbursement please complete the form ED01650-33 and submit by OCTOBER 1, 2020
- Qualifying ORIGINAL receipts may then be submitted our office, along with the Request for Reimbursement form (included), any time throughout the 2020-21 school year, but will not be accepted after June 1, 2021.
